

BOOST YOUR IMMUNITY THIS WINTER

A healthcare worker, identified as Ralford Lee by his name tag, is wearing a blue polo shirt, dark trousers, and a light blue surgical mask. He is holding the hand of a patient who is seated in a blue hospital chair. The patient is wearing a white hospital gown with a small pattern and a light blue surgical mask. The background is a clinical setting with a grey wall and a door. A sign above the door displays the number '4' with two red arrows pointing downwards. The healthcare worker's figure is highlighted with a bright yellow and cyan outline.
